2. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small data files. When you visit a website, the website sends the cookie to your computer. Your computer stores it in a file located inside your web browser.

Cookies do not carry viruses or malware to your computer. Since the data in a cookie remains unchanged during transmission, it cannot interfere with how your computer runs, but they act more like logs (i.e. they record user activity and remember stateful information) and they get updated every time you visit a website.

We may obtain information about you by accessing cookies, sent by our websites. Differenttypes of cookies keep track of different activities. For example, session cookies are used only when a person is actively navigating a website. Once you leave the websites, the session cookie disappears. For a more detailed list of cookies we use, please read the relevant section below.

3. WHY ARE COOKIES USEFUL?

We use functional cookies to analyse how visitors interact with websites and to monitor and improve our websites' performance and function. This helps us deliver a high-quality customer experience by quickly identifying and fixing any issues that may arise. For example,we might use cookies to keep track of which website pages are most popular and which method of linking between website pages is most effective. The latter also helps us to track ifyou were referred to us by another website and improve our future advertising campaigns.

Cookies are also used to store your log in sessions. For example, when you log in to theMembers Area to deposit funds, a "session cookie" is set so that the websites remember that you have already logged in. If the website did not set this cookie, you will be asked for your login and password on each new page as you progress through the funding process.

In addition, functional cookies are used to remember your preferences and recognize you as a user, help keep your information secure and ensure the website operates reliably and efficiently. For example, these cookies save you from having to type in yourusername every time you access our trading platform, and recall your preferences, such as your preferred language.

Here is an overview of some of the functions our cookies provide us with:

- Verifying your identity and detecting the country you are currently visiting from.

- Checking browser type and device.

- Tracking which site the user was referred from.

- Allowing third parties to customize content accordingly.
